Can You Recognize Your Personality?

Take a few minutes and look over the links on the previous page. Does one stand out to you more than the others?

Are you the get-everything-done Mobilizer? It's possible if you love checking off your accomplishment boxes, even if you have to stay up all night to do it!

Perhaps you resonate with the life-of-the-party Socializer. This may be you if your creative storytelling has everyone laughing it up at family reunions or business gatherings.

Are you more at ease with the keep-it-peaceful Stabilizer? This personality can be found relaxing on a couch while everyone else is talking up a storm - no worries, you're just fine.

Maybe the everything-in-order Organizer is more your style. Are you really particular about your projects? Have you ever said, "If you're going to do something, it needs to be done right"?

This is by far a simplified assessment, but hopefully you can see yourself in one or two of the personalities listed.

If recognizing your personality has you wondering how this knowledge impacts lives around you, we encourage you to dig a little deeper and get your copy of our 2018 award winning book, LINKED Quick Guide to Personalities: Maximizing Life Connections One Link at a Time today. Available at your local bookstores (if yours doesn't carry the book ask them to order it for you) or you can find it on Amazon.

Touted as a "Quick Reference Guide to Navigate Your Relationships" every LINKED Quick Guide to Personalities offers a more determining 26-multiple choice assessment to help you quickly discover your dominant and secondary personality. You also receive key word identifiers revealing your positive and negative personality tendencies, scenarios to help you engage better with different personalities, and practice application you can begin using right away.

Be on the lookout for these upcoming books: LINKED for EDUCATORS, LINKED for PARENTS, LINKED for LEADERS, and LINKED for TEENS.

We'd love to hear from you,
